With the Money-Makers

Of Interest to Housekeepers.

If the Pensacola housekeepers will keep a careful eye on the ads of B. Gerson they will certainly learn things to their interest. The latest thing now is "open stock" goods, which enables them to fill in any broker piece in any dinner set.

A Dakota Editor's Needs.

It is reported that one of the fastidious ladies of this town kneads bread with her gloves on. This may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs bread with his pants on; and unless some of the delinquent subscribers to the Flag of Freedom pony up before long he will need bread without a damn thing on, and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in winter time, either.—From the North Dakota Flag of Freedom.

The big half-page ads of W. J. & B. Forbes are attracting a great deal of attention. Reports from that store indicate that business has increased wonderfully since the increased advertising, the dull season notwithstanding.

Cause for Tears.

"Yes, I am the mother of three children, two of whom are living. The other—cause these tears—"
"Yes, certainly, you poor thing!"
"The other works in a store that doesn't advertise."—Fort Worth Record.

All Around.

Call a girl a chick and she smiles; call a young woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she hates you. Women are queer.
If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a hound, or a cur, and he will try to alter the map of your face. He doesn't mind being called a bull or a bear, yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer, too.—London Tit Bits.

Thoughts.

Weigh every ad for selling force. That's a proving test.
Spasmodic advertising means playing tag with Opportunity.
To sell more, tell more.
There are times when it requires more nerve to be a conformer than a reformer.
Luck seldom turns of its own accord. It's up to you to prod your prior under it, and flop it over.
The ideal ad has salesmanship written all over it.
Noise is not argument.
Look to results far more than to rates.—Judicious Advertising.

A Tip From Uncle Russel Sage.
While many of the stories that are told of Mr. Sage's miserly habits and eccentricities are fictitious, none of them are exaggerations for anyone to imagine a man more economical. A few years ago he sent for a gentleman who had done him a favor, and in a confidential way said that he was going to reward him with a "tip" that he could work for a profit. Then, to the man's astonishment, Mr. Sage gave him the address of a store on Seventh avenue where he could get shoes for $2 a pair.—Chicago Record Herald.

DELINQUENT COUNTY TAXES

Only about 10 days more remain in which delinquent county tax payers can make settlement of the amounts charged against them and avoid having their property advertised and sold. The delinquent tax list will be published about July 20 and after that time the only way property can be saved will be by redeeming it after sale according to law.

Taxes are delinquent on April 1 and the tax collector is supposed to make his final report during the first week in July. It has been the custom, however, to allow several weeks extra in which delinquents can pay up. In the city, delinquents are charged a certain percentage of the amounts due as penalty, but this is not the case with the county taxes.

RESIDENCE BURGLARIZED

Some time between Sunday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon a burglar entered the residence of Dr. Warren E. Anderson, on the corner of Gregory and Barcelona streets, and carried off plunder to the value of about $500.

During his visit the burglar filled the bath tub and after selecting a change of the doctor's clothes took a bath and left the house, leaving the bath tub full of water and his own discarded and soiled clothes lying on the floor.

Among the articles taken were a pair of diamond earrings, a diamond pin and a diamond stud.

The doctor and his family, who are occupying their summer residence on the bayshore, had left their town house unoccupied, therefore leaving a good opening for the robber. There is no clue to the guilty parties.
